

2019 LCAC MONOPOLY TOURNAMENT

What is LCAC?

Lorton Community Action Center is a 501(c)3 human services non-profit organization dedicated to assisting low-income seniors, children, military members, individuals and families in the southeastern area of Fairfax County, Virginia.

What is the LCAC Monopoly Tournament?

The 2019 Monopoly Tournament is an annual tournament hosted by the Ron Kowalski Real Estate Group with all proceeds benefiting LCAC. The tournament will be held on Saturday, March 2, 2019 from 9 AM to 2 PM. This event is family-friendly with players aged 8 and up playing for a grand prize of $500. Breakfast and lunch will be provided by a local community group and restaurant to players at no additional cost.

Why sponsor the tournament?

Your commitment to sponsor LCAC's Monopoly Tournament will ensure that your name will be advertised to a targeted audience of:

- Almost 100 players with their friends and family from the Northern Virginia area who are dedicated to supporting their local community.
- Over 2,400 people through LCAC's social media channels who are actively engaged in our posts.
- Over 3,300 people subscribed to our weekly e-newsletter.

What impact will your donation have?

Thanks to our supporters LCAC is able to achieve the following throughout the year:

- Distribute food to more than 2,200 people through the LCAC Food Pantry.
- Inspire more than 500 children through our after-school and tutoring programs.
- Provide winter coats to more than 900 people.
- Provide gifts, food and toys to more than 2,800 people during the holiday season.
- Empower more than 200 individuals with improved English skills through our ESL program.
